

The NLP approach to learning is utterly simple; it makes you aware of your student's particular working style and teaches you how to assist them in updating it for more efficient use with super learning strategies.